POLITICAL INTERVIEW.

What Ex-Governor Noyes Says of Things.

The Attitude of the Two Parties is Oho As to Presidential Preferences—Senator Sherman's Chances Considered Best.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Ex-Governor General Noyes, of Ohio, was waiting in the room in the Fifth Avenue Hotel when a reporter called him to have his views regarding the Republican situation.

He said that he was on his way to Europe upon business which would detain him in London, Paris and France, and that latter part of the year he would be in a general way of affairs in Ohio, he said that the local issues which divided the Republicans last fall will hardly figure in the National campaign.

He was asked what he thought of the problem of the finances, and especially of the problem of tariff. "The Democracy of Ohio," he said, "while professing to be in favor of tariff for revenue, is not in favor of tariff for protection, and if they would be as honest as Frank Blair would utter his sentiments upon the tariff question. The Republican party can always be relied upon to be in favor of a protective tariff. Setting aside issues aside, they would be in the Republican party in the past. I have no doubt that when we get to the Republican Convention will get the electoral vote by a majority of not less than 50,000."

The present Democratic legislation is not designed to strengthen the party, but on the contrary, is unopposed by the men who have their root and branch in the defeat of the Republicans. The responsibility is now shifted."

What is the prevailing sentiment as to the coming candidate in your State?" was asked.

"Well, Ohio Republicans are generally in favor of Hayes, and Senator Sherman. His policy in the resumption of specie payment, while Secretary of the Treasury, was so successful that they have confidence in him and would be glad to see him receive participation in the government."

He was named at the convention because he would have the support of the Ohio delegation. There are other probable candidates who have merit, from the point of view of their merit, but the man who is most likely to be chosen is the candidate of the National Convention. Logan is strong among the soldiers. Any one of the candidates who have merit, and who would be a credit to the country, would be pretty sure of Ohio.

He was asked if he thought that the National Convention would be held in Chicago.

"I don't know," he said. "I think it will be held in Chicago."

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

MONDAY EVE, APRIL 14, 1884.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

We pause to say a brilliant thought
Across our mind has flashed;
We'll go and shake an olive branch
At the door of the sheriff,
And if it doesn't quickly bring
The smiles onto their faces,
We'll go and get a hickory branch
And dust their little horses.

An Easter Card sent out recently by the New Republican is a very handsome piece of typographic work.

The funeral procession of Mr. Henry Shoot, on Sunday afternoon, was one of the largest that ever passed through the City.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

A Few Incongruous Remarks About the Same.

Dennbrook Fair was not a marker to it, and in a wild-west point of view it was equal to the best Hards convention ever held in the county.

It was a square knock down on the first round for Blaine and Sherman.

The seven wrecked booms found in the debris are not fit even for firewood. In this famous fight between the pot and the kettle it is clear that victory perches on the banner of the pot.

Resolved, that the Democrats will keep a close mouth on the subject of turbulent conventions we will endeavor to do the same thing. Menally adopted.

A BULLETIN reporter who circulated among the victors and the vanquished overheard the following expressions of opinion:

"See how it is distinct unity. I have been fooling with a threshing machine—I went at it in the thresher and come out at Kackley."

"I have nothing to say further than I have been fooling with a threshing machine."

"That make du knuck amazin'."

"I have nothing to say further than I was fooling with a threshing machine."

"Yes, that's it—It was a squander sober."

"I was not in the least excited, I was never easier in my life, I was in a quiet mood, with a quiet, quiet, quiet feeling for the ad libitum and an uprising of citizens who had an unmeasured desire to do."

"I am glad you were not there and I am particularly pleased that nothing is going to be done to you in the next election."

"The Rev. Mr. Fostering may come to you and say, 'I have been fooling with a threshing machine and now I have a hickory branch and Saturday, he would change his opinion. I know there is a hell.'

Exactly the Square Thing.

Mention was made last week in these columns of the arrest in this city of Joseph Myers, Meyers, it seems, was wanted in Rowan County on some charge or other, and a reward of $50 had been offered for his capture. At the close of his examining trial before Mayor January, he was placed in charge of Deputy Marshal Dawson, who was to take the prisoner to Morehead, and there deliver him to the authorities of Rowan County.

Mr. Dawson started on his journey with Myers in charge last Friday morning.

Judging from his story, he received rather severe treatment at the hands of some of the Rowan officials. When with in about twelve miles of Morehead, Mr. Dawson says he was met by the Sheriff of Rowan, one of his deputies, and three assistants. The Sheriff demanded the prisoner. On Mr. Dawson's refusal to hand him over an alteration ensued in which the Sheriff and his party were victorious, carrying off the prisoner. Mr. Dawson states he was beaten over the head by the Sheriff with a pistol, and this too, while he was unable to defend himself, being held by the Deputy Sheriff and two of his assistants. He was not seriously injured however, although he still bears evidences of the scrimmage.

PERSONALS.

Mr. John Archdeacon has returned from a four months visit to Texas.

Mr. F. C. Petry has returned from his visit to Florida. He is enjoying excellent health.

The House has adopted a resolution providing that the Legislature shall adjourn on the 25th instant, and meet in adjourned session December 31st.

What Does It Mean?

Ed. Bulletin: It might be inferred from the published proceedings of the recent election that the people in this state have some interest in the establishment of a "protestant" school in a community which has abounded with protestant schools for fifty years, at least; and contains, at the present time, a number of schools of the highest class, and fully adequate to the educational wants of the community. As to the inspired reflection upon the Catholic schools, we do not see anything that deserves the name of a "protestant" school, and the term is becoming general. Why not protestant lawyers, priests, school-keepers, etc., etc. I have no other wish, at present, Mr. Editor, than to call attention to the essential circumstance that we already have first-class protestant schools, and to repeat the statement made in a recent letter that they are abundantly equal to the public needs. If Miss Taylor, Miss Harrison, Miss Taylor and others, not gone, and never will have good educations in this community. I shall note, with curiosity, the particulars in which the new protestant teachers will show their superiority over the old ones. I have no objection to a general subscription for getting up an undenominational non-sectarian protestant opera house, street railway, newspaper, cotton mill or bank.

Lawrence Barrett's Great Success in London—More About the Latest Persian Arrests in England—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, April 14.—Mr. Lawrence Barrett, the American actor, made his first appearance before an English audience at the Lyceum Theater. The audience was crowded, and a highly unusually enthusiastic audience. Among those present were Mr. Oscar Wilde, Mr. W. S. Gilbert, Lots and many of the most eminent dramatic critics of London. The author of the play, "Yorick's Love," the greatest enthusiasm prevailed, Mr. Barrett being loudly cheered at the end of each act and having a curtain call before the curtain in order to quiet the audience. In answer to many loud calls for a "speech," Mr. Barrett stepped forward and with some show of agitation thanked his audience in a few brief words for the kindness with which he had been received.

He said that Mr. Irving had called him from America promising him a splendid reception on the occasion of his first public appearance in England. The reception far exceeded his most sanguine hopes, and added that his countrymen in America would derive as much pleasure from his coming to England as he did from his visit. Mr. Barrett's success is now well assured, the critics agreeing unanimously that he has made the greatest hit of the season.

THE CHINESE IN CANADA.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 14.—Sir John Macdonald, in his speech to the Legislature from British Columbia, has again referred to the question of the influx of Chinese into that Province to the Imperial Government for inquiry as to whether there is any Imperial treasonable or infringing of the law to prevent the carrying out of the act, and if no treaty of such nature exists the Government will at its next session introduce a measure regulating immigration from China.

A FRAUD TO BRIDGE THE ST. LAWRENCE.

QUEBEC, April 14.—A petition is in circulation asking the Government to interfere and prevent the Canadian Pacific Railroad from bridging the St. Lawrence west of Montreal, and to have a bridge built near Quebec. A plan to bridge west of Montreal would have the effect of throwing the trade of the Canadian Pacific Railroad to American ports, and would also deprive Quebec and maritime provinces of its benefits.

A FALLING OFF.

MONTREAL, April 14.—The traffic receipts of the Grand Trunk Railway show a falling off for the week ending April 5 of nearly $2,000.

DO YOU KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT THEM?

OTTAWA, Ont., April 14.—Dr. Cossé, who it was reported had represented himself to the Canadian Government as being in the confidence of the dynamitists, and who it is known himself had been closely shadowed by detectives, is becoming nervous over the publicity, and says now that he has no connection with the dynamitists, having nothing of their movements, and is merely traveling agent for a patent oil lamp.

DAILY AND EGAN.

LIVERPOOL, April 14.—Daily, arrested yesterday on suspicion of being a dynamiter, was brought before a magistrate and remanded, charged with having in his possession incendiary machines with intent to commit a felony. He was remanded to prison for a week.

BIRMINGHAM, April 14.—James Egan, arrested yesterday on suspicion of being before Court this morning charged with conspiring to commit a felony, and an explosion, he was also remanded to prison. Egan's wife declares the papers belonging to Egan, which the police secured, refer to operations of the Home Rulers and not to dynamite.

A Police Inspector testified that he had been watching Egan for five months; that Egan and Daily were very intimate, and were in the habit of spending evenings together.

Egan claimed he knew Daily only as Daily, but the documents seized proved this claim false.

PRISONERS OF WAR.

PETITION Presented by General Keeler to the House.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—General Keeler has presented a petition to the House which will interest many people in Ohio. It is asked to be read most carefully. It concerns of war, confined in rebel prisons during the late unpleasantness. It will interest many people in Ohio and in any other state, for it is signed by 2,830 Ohioans. Have signed it. No other State in the country seems to have so many prisoners as Ohio.

Of nearly twenty states represented in this huge petition no State has so many signers as Ohio. Pennsylvania comes next with 2,645; Illinois next, 2,545; then New York, 2,465; Iowa, 2,375; Kansas, 2,180. The petition is signed by a large number, asking that all who were prisoners of war, Confederate prisoners, should be pensioned. It claims that diseases were contracted by many of those who were captured, and many of those who suffered that experience and that it is only just that they should be pensioned therof. Some curious communications accompany this huge document.

Horrible Cause of a Scarlet Fever

CAMDEN, N. J., April 14.—An epidemic of scarlet fever prevails in Gloucester City, a place of 6,000 inhabitants just below this city, on the Delaware River. Its rapid progress has been attributed to a floating ice, which had been used on a scarlet fever corpse, into the street near a school. The ice was picked up and eaten by the school children. The health authorities have become alarmed and will take immediate action.

PHILADELPHIA, Ill., April 14.—Dame Brown, aged sixty, a wealthy farmer and oil merchant, was found dead in her bed, shot to death this morning, in the front parlor. He went into the stall to unite the animal. He let the rope fall, and when it stooped to pick it up the vicious animal jumped on him and gored him, the horn severing his abdomen four inches.
